Massachusetts Association of Private Career Schools

MAPCS membership gives product and service providers exposure to potential clients and contacts with the members of the private career school industry in Massachusetts.

Networking

The private career schools recognize MAPCS Associate Members as strong supporters of their industry.

MAPCS Associate Members can attend the seminars and conferences that attract the leaders and shakers in the private career school industry.

These high quality programs provide associate members with a great opportunity to showcase their products and services plus network with current and potential clients.

Publications

All associate members receive the MAPCS e-newsletter, which includes information that is important to business and career schools. It is published quarterly.

Associate members also receive the same mailings received by our school members, including timely information on legislative and regulatory issues, workshops, events and seminars.

Discounts

Members also receive discounts of up to 50 percent for all MAPCS seminars and conferences. Plus with StaplesLink.com, you can order supplies electronically and save time and money.

Website Listing

The Association's online Directory will not only list your contact information, it will provide a direct link to your website to drive our members directly to your product or service information.

An email link is also provided to give members the chance to contact you directly.

Membership Fee

The Associate Membership fee is $200.
